The conference will provide a forum to discuss Federal initiatives affecting the health and nutritional well-being of WIC mothers and young children, as well as the service, delivery and the effective management of the WIC program.

The goal of this conference is to explore tools to reach, teach, and keep WIC participants and supporters engaged with WIC – the nation's premier public health nutrition program.

Voices of WIC

“WIC has taught me how to bond with both of my girls and not create jealousy. The WIC program encourages healthier eating options and things to do to keep adults and children active” –Anonymous Father on the Wood County WIC program.

Please send your WIC participant stories to aroltgen@co.wood.wi.us or your regional representative, and we will make sure your WIC stories are featured!

Legislative Update

Bi-Partisan Child Nutrition Bill Strong for Mothers and Young Children

The proposed bill includes provisions from the Wise Investment in our Children Act, also known as the WIC Act giving states the option to enroll children in WIC until their sixth birthday or until they enter full day kindergarten. Currently, eligibility for WIC terminates on a child's 5th birthday. The bill also gives states the option to certify infants for up to two years, reducing a barrier to child participation in the program. Additionally, the bill authorizes $25 million/year more for funding to help all states implement electronic benefit (EBT) systems by 2020. EBT systems streamline vendor participation and management, provide a new program oversight tool, and improve the WIC client experience.
